REVIEW - ws.home.com, also know as Williams Sonoma Home, has expanded to include furniture and accessories. Their home furnishings exude a casual yet elegant design. In addition to furniture, wshome.com provides luxury bedding, bath collections, accents, mirrors and outdoor items. wshome.com provides everything you need to furnish your home and their customer service does everything they can to accommodate consumer needs. One of the many facets of their site is the ability to see the item of interest in a variety of views. Change color of the item, zoom in, or see it in a room setting, these features added to a comprehensive description, will make shopping online much easier. wshome.com really shines when it comes to choosing upholstered furnishings. Their site helps glide you through dozens of furniture styles in more than 100 fabrics. Change upholstery by clicking on any number of materials and see how it will look. wshome.com goes one step further, they provide a design service to pull a look together and create a style. Free consultations with in-house designers, help with everything from space planning to upholstery selections. Just phone their in-house designers to arrange for professional assistance. The name of Williams Sonoma brings to mind trust, high quality products that are fairly priced. These very attributes are what TheRatingsGuy.com is looking for and this site is a Great example!
